

Arielle Sauer

Address

Phone | Ariesauer@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

To obtain an entry level internship position for Spring 2015.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Economics, Stony Brook University, 08/2014

- Dean's list: Spring 2011, Spring 2012, Fall 2013, Spring 2014
- Relevant coursework
- Mathematical Statistics Acquired knowledge on how to make decisions based off the likelihood of any given outcome.
- Applied Microeconomics Developed knowledge of intertemporal choice, the fundamentals of corporate finance, valuing stocks, and the basics of econometrics.
- Economic Development Achieved a greater understanding of different problems of economic development and the different economic theories on growth and development.
- Writing in Your Profession Attained knowledge of different styles of writing used in the work place, such as: research and report writing, professional blog writing, writing professionally on social media platforms, and other basic forms of writing used in any business environment.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Student Assistant, Tabler Center of Arts, Culture, and Humanities, Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, New York 09/2012-8/2014

- Set up sound and lighting equipment for events and classes.
- Provided technical assistance to students and professors.
- Supervised the computer lab.
- Helped maintain the building.

Shift Manager, Quick Chek, Saugerties, New York 01/2010-07/2014

- Accurately handle and verify an upwards of $6000.
- Provided outstanding customer service by resolving any in-store conflicts.
- Checking in vendor orders.

Intern, Alternative Spring Break Outreach, Estes Park, Colorado 03/2014

Alternative spring break trip focused on flood relief in Estes Park, Colorado

- Assisted in the researching different fundraising options.
- Helped with barn restoration for Ranahan Ranch at Elk Horn Lodge so that they were able to reopen this summer.
- Removed debris from Fish Creek to help facilitate the expected winter run-off from the Rocky Mountains.

- Helped with the cutting and stacking of 2000 trees from landslide cause by flood. The logs will then be used to heat the entire ranch, saving them about $7000 in heating cost a year.

LEADERSHIP&COMMUNITY SERVICE

Intern, Saugerties is About Growth Experience , Saugerties, New York 01/2009-06/2010

Selective internship served on a non-profit organization board in Saugerties as a young member in order to provide a different ideas and resources as a student.

- Made major decisions on events hosted by the board.
- Recruited local businesses to participate in events.

Volunteer, Alternative Spring Break Outreach, Biloxi, Mississippi 03/2013

- Alternative spring break trip in Biloxi, Mississippi doing community service geared toward environmental restoration. The main focus of this trip was the restoration of the coral reef for Dear Island.

SKILLS

- Familiar with both Mac and PC platforms and applications.
- Proficient with Microsoft Office applications.
- Familiar with Cloud systems such as Google Docs.
- Experienced in the use of Adobe Premiere Pro movie editing system for presentation purposes.