

Please join us for the very first first “Human Genetics in NYC” meeting to take place on Wednesday, January 13, 2016 at the Rockefeller University, from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM in the Caspary Auditorium.

This is a multi-institutional effort in all areas of human genetics, ranging from evolutionary genetics to genomic medicine, which includes representation from the following 20 institutions:

Albert Einstein College of Medicine	New York Genome Center
American Museum of Natural History	New York University
Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory	Office of Chief Medical Examiner
Columbia University	Princeton University
Feinstein Institute	Rockefeller University
Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai	Rutgers University
Jackson Laboratory	Stony Brook University
Long Island University	SUNY Downstate
Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center	Weill Cornell Medical Center
New York Blood Bank	Yale University

The program will entail a series of seminars from speakers from the institutions listed above. Submissions of abstracts for short oral presentations are invited. Program details will follow.

Attendance is free to anyone interested in human genetics. Lunch will be served. Registration is crucial. Please register as soon as possible by clicking here.
